

FRANK J. GOULD ON HUNTING TRIP

Unexpected Repairs to the Arkansas Delays North Atlantic Fleet.

DROWNED IN PORTO RICO

Father, Who Could Not Swim, Nearly Lost Life to Save Child.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., November 9.—Frank Gould and a party, including Marion Storey, of New York, are to arrive here tomorrow to board the yacht Itala, owned by Mr. Storey, for a gunning trip to the North Carolina sounds.

Unexpected repairs developed as necessary aboard the monitor Arkansas, of the United States Coast Defense squadron, of the North Atlantic fleet, now at at the navy yard here, that it will not arrive in Charleston harbor, South Carolina, before the first of December, when the winter evolutions in the South will begin.

DROWNED IN PORTO RICO.
Joseph, the son of Rev. D. P. and Mrs.
Eva O. Barrett, missionaries of the Christian denomination in Porto Rico, from Norfolk, was drowned in the Portuguese River, Porto Rico, October 25th last. The following account has been received here:

It was a hot day, and as the father had just gotten home from a missionary tour, he went to the river to bathe, and the boy went with him. The little child ran along the shore for a short distance and into the water at a point where there was a deep hole. The father saw him at that instant and rushed to his rescue. Though the parent could not swim, he plunged into the dangerous hole and went down in hope of rescuing the boy, but failed. The effort was repeated four times, and the distressed father narrowly escaped the fate of his son, being himself saved the last time by coming to the surface near enough to the shore to be able to get a hold on a support and wait until a rope was thrown to him. The boy was five years old.

WOMAN BEATEN AND KICKED.
Lillian May (colored) was assaulted on the corner of Godwin and County Streets, Portsmouth, this morning by two negro men, William Brown and another, who goes under the alias of "Boosey Ace." After the woman had been knocked down she was kicked by one of the men, and she is now in the county jail, not expected to live. Brown was captured and "Boosey Ace" escaped. The former was committed to jail by Justice Peed.
The trouble among the three was caused by a dispute over money.

MR. CROWELL BETTER.
It is announced from St. Christopher's Hospital, that M. B. Crowell, general agent for Old Dominion Steamship Company, who is now ill there, was slightly improved to-day, though still in a precarious condition. He was delirious all day yesterday.

The schooner Matilda Brooks, a Norfolk-New York lumber trader, lies on the Berkeley flats, with four feet of water in her hold. She loaded lumber up the James River for New York and after going out sprang a leak, put back here and run on the flats to save her from sinking lower in the water. An effort will be made to locate the leak and stop it so the vessel may proceed without discharging cargo.

Captain Colin W. Scarborough, engineer of the tug Pocahontas, whose feet were cut off by a Norfolk and Western engine recently, is recovering at Sarah Leigh Hospital, where the wounded man is lying with his legs amputated above the ankle.

WHO CUT MARTIN?

Paul Archer Arrested, and Warrant Out for Four Others.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., November 9.—Paul Archer, colored, was arrested in Chesterfield county last night as one of the negroes who beat and stabbed Samuel Martin, a farmer living near Petersburg, who interfered in a negro row in Pocahontas last Saturday night, and was badly wounded.

Warrants are out for four other negroes, one of whom, Bud Archer, is charged with the stabbing of Mr. Martin.
Paul Archer was arrested by Constable Ingram and lodged in the Petersburg jail.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Beautiful Young Girl Covered With Burning Oil.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., November 9.— Miss Mary Kuykendall, a beautiful girl of Summit Point, met a horrible fate here last night by burning to death.
Miss Kuykendall was in the act of putting a lamp in a room here when she went to bed when it exploded, deluging her with blazing oil.
Thomas Kuykendall, her father, was badly burned in the attempt to rescue his child. The victim of this terrible fate was but sixteen and very popular in that community.

FOOD OF V. M. I. CADETS TO BE INVESTIGATED

Non-Committal As to Punishment of the Third Class.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LEXINGTON, VA., November 9.—The Board of Visitors of the Virginia Military Institute met to-day at the Institute for the purpose of investigating the complaints by cadets of the unsatisfactory food furnished them.

There were present at the meeting Alexander Hamilton, of Petersburg, president of the board; John N. Tabb, of Roanoke; Francis L. Smith, of Alexandria; James L. White, of Abingdon; Phil E.
Brown, of Blue Ridge Springs; Dr. J. N.
Upshur, of Richmond; W. T. Shields, of Lexington, and Adjutant-General W.
Sullivan, of Richmond.

The session to-day was spent in arranging preliminaries, such as the procedure for the investigation and the employment of a stenographer. To-morrow the board will go into the business for which the meeting was called. Thomas W. Shelton, of Norfolk, the only member of the board absent, is expected to reach Lexington in the morning.

The serious trouble in which members of the third class now find themselves is thought by many persons here to be due to the charges by Dr. Carrington, and also by the sensational articles that have appeared in the afternoon papers of Richmond.

The members of the board are non-committal as to the possible punishment of the offending third class men. From the preparations made for the investigation of the situation, the board evidently intends to go to the bottom of the matter, and no doubt many witnesses will be summoned, not only from among the cadets, but from the gentlemen of the community, who have taken occasional meals at the mess hall with the cadets.

As a sample of the bill of fare served the cadets, the meals for one day were as follows: Breakfast—oatmeal, breakfast bacon, beef croquettes, egg cornbread, tea, coffee. Dinner—Vegetable soup, baked beef, stewed tomatoes, potatoes, rice apple pie. Supper—Beef steak, stewed corn, mashed potatoes, pan apple pie, hot rolls, tea, coffee.

CHESTERFIELD.
Board of Supervisors Hold No Meeting.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHESTERFIELD, C. H., VA., November 9.—On account of the death of Captain J. C. Dams on Monday, the county supervisors held no meeting here to-day, though several of them met on his farm at Drewry's Bluff to view the route of the road petitioned for across his land.
The regular board meeting will be held on the fourth Monday.

The November term of the Circuit Court will begin next Monday, the 13th.
A special grand jury has been summoned and for Monday to consider the case of Harry C. Holland and three others, and the first few days of court will be devoted to the trial of criminal cases.

STRENUOUS DAY FOR THE HOUNDS

High Wind and Cold Weather Destroyed the Scent.

INTERRUPTED IN THE CHASE

Crossed By the Orange County Hunt When Pack in Full Swing.

(Special From a Staff Correspondent.) UPPERVILLE, VA., November 9.—The eighth day of the Grafton-Middlesex hound trials proved most strenuous, for, on account of the high wind and dry, cold weather, there was absolutely no scent. The best that Grafton hounds could do after trailing an hour and a half was to furnish a nine-minute burst that filled the field with the hope fast, in spite of adverse circumstances, a kill would be recorded. When the American pack had the fox up and going, they were crossed by the Orange county hunt of New York, which is wintering at The Plains, some fourteen miles distant from Upperville.

Mr. John R. Townsend and Mr. Robert Gerry, of New York, who were with the Orange county hounds, called off the hounds and coupled them, but after the interruption, Mr. Smith's hounds were unable to again find that locality. The day, on a long one, for the master of Grafton took advantage of the conditions of the match, which permitted him to hunt from sunrise to sunset, and hounds and horses covered not less than sixty miles.

Mr. Paul Whitin, of Whitinville, had two falls on Mr. Okie's green hunter, but was uninjured.

Narrow Escape.

Mr. Malbon Richardson, of Boston, had a narrow escape, when his clean-bred hunter, St. Michaels, fell with him at a rail fence, with a ditch at the take-off and landing sides. Mr. Richardson was caught underneath his horse, but succeeded in wriggling out of danger.

Mr. C. C. Eastham, of Rappahannock county, one of the best known fox hunters in Virginia, is here to assist Mr. Smith in hunting his hounds.

Mr. Eastham, on his way to Oakley, accompanied by his own small pack, killed a fox on Texas Mountain.
Grafton hounds met this morning at Seula, ten miles distant from Upperville, at 6:30 o'clock, when a field of fourteen assembled. The Middlesex party, from Middleburg, sent their horses by the wrong road, and although they drove to the meet, they were unable to ride. Mrs.
Tom Pierce, who on yesterday lost a tooth from a fall and cut her lip, was early on hand, ready for the day's sport. The only lady went brilliantly on "Searchlight." During the run all the field dropped out except Mr. Harry W. Smith, with Mr. C.
C. Eastham, Mr. Malbon Richardson and Claude Hatcher, composing the Grafton establishment, and Messrs. R. H. Dulaney, Hallam L. Movius, Edward Gay Butler, Thomas Dougherty, Henry Lawson and Allen Potts.

Hunting in Buggy.

Mr. Bywater, a veteran fox hunter, of Chilpeur, Va., followed the hounds as best he could in a buggy, and managed not only to be with Grafton hounds, but on his way back to Oakley joined a pack of local fox hunters, who ran a fox to "earth."

Mr. Smith hunted his regular pack today of six couples. The meet to-morrow, when the English Middlesex pack will run, will be held at Middleburg at 7 o'clock.
Mr. John R. Townsend, master of Orange County Hunt, of New York, has notified the masters of Grafton and Middlesex that he will present to the winner of the match a silver cup or a piece of plate, valued at $250.

Mr. Westmoreland Davis will hereafter act as one of the judges of the match, taking the place of Mr. James K.
Madux, master of Warrenton, who has been called home on account of his hunting engagements. Mr. Davis has a string of six crack hunters here, all of which have gone brilliantly since the trial began.

Three More Days.

The Grafton-Middlesex hounds have each three more days before the judges will be asked to make a decision as to the winner of the match, and the disposal of the purse of $2,000, which is being run for.

Mr. Smith succeeded late this afternoon in doing fine work with the Grafton pack after entire field had left hounds, thinking that there could not possibly be any sport under the unfavorable weather conditions and lack of scent.
Hounds began to draw Colonel Dulaney's cromers at 3:30, and jumped a fox on Cronwell's run near Ben Fletcher's, at 4:24. After a fast run of eighteen minutes, the pack, led by Sinner ran the fox to earth at Newmarket, near the creek.
The only rider up when the fox was to earth were Mr. R. H. Dulaney, of Wellbourne, Mr. Harry W. Smith, Mr.
Hallam L. Movius, and Claude Hatcher.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

Virginia Captures Three Out of Four Doubles.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., November 9.— The third annual tennis tournament between representatives of the Universities of Virginia and North Carolina was begun to-day on the University of Virginia courts.
Fred Pollard, of Richmond, and Frank Chapman, of Los Angeles, Cal., were the Virginia players, while Henry H. Phillips and Orr represented North Carolina.
Only the matches in doubles were played off to-day. Virginia capturing three out of four sets. The scores were as follows: 6-4, 6-1 and 6-0. The play was sharper than the scores indicate, the visitors putting up a plucky fight.
Pollard's clever play proved difficult to handle, and kept his opponents well to the back of the court. Chapman's work was equalized by his smashing from the net, enabling him to make a good many shots that otherwise would have gone to Carolina.
The singles to-morrow will conclude the tournament.

KILLED HIS MAN.

Bloodhounds to Be Used to Capture Murderer.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WYTHEVILLE, VA., November 9.—A negro named Hall was shot and killed at Max Meadows this morning by another negro named Johnson. Both parties were arrangers. Hall being from Johnson City and Johnson from Ohio. Johnson has made his escape, and the killing is said to have been in self-defense.
Deputy Sheriff Brown has gone down with his bloodhounds to try and capture Johnson.

BRIDE KILLS HERSELF AND THE BRIDEGROOM

lasted until almost midnight. Then the bride and bridegroom drove to their supposed future residence, both carrying the best wishes of them who knew them.
About 9 o'clock this morning Mrs.
Johnston produced a pistol, it was only twenty-two caliber, and started tragic results. According to the aspect of the bride's chamber, her husband was shot either first in the breast or cheek.
Either wound would have killed. The bullet which grazed the forehead probably was the second or third. Blood from the breast bullet flowed on the bed clothing, and some leaked through on the carpet. Johnston was in his night dress, as the woman was.

After dealing out the death shots, Mrs. Johnston seemingly walked towards the bureau. She only took one shot at herself, but that was enough.
The revolver muzzle was placed in her mouth. The bullet ploughed through her head and came out a little below the left eye, and a little below her left ear. Death in each case was almost instantaneous. Very little blood came from the bride's wound.
The cause of the tragedy is a mystery.
Helen Hope had been loved by Johnston since she was a small girl. For a year since she was a small girl, Johnston or so she returned the affection, and since the announcement of the wedding every prediction was a happy life.
Helen was the only daughter of Chas.
R. Hope, her mother died when she was a child.

STATUE OF SATAN IS UNVEILED BY INFIDEL

Detroit Man Erects It Near His Home to Show His Contempt for Religion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DETROIT, MICH., November 9.—A monument to Satan, erected by an avowed infidel to show his contempt for religion, was the sight that greeted neighbors of Herman Menz, a contracting stonemason, when they passed his home in Stenton Avenue to-day.
Murmurs of indignation are freely voiced, and corrective measures are being discussed. The monument is a quite an elaborate affair, about fourteen feet in height from its foundation to its crown.
Satan is shown in stooping posture behind a pulpit. His infernal majesty is looking over the landscape with a fend-ish glare, with his horns protruding from the side of his head. Carved in the stone directly in front of the big, ugly fork with which he is supposed to prod sinners in the fire.
The structure is built on the lot line alongside the Menz home.
Around the neck of the statue when it was unveiled was a ribbon of United States flags. Menz explained this by saying it is a Yankee devil.

THE RECENT MASSACRE OF AMERICAN MISSIONARIES

(By Associated Press.)
HONG KONG, Nov. 9.—Dr. Machie, the American missionary who escaped the massacre at Lai-chang, China, has given previous accounts of the outbreak, and is now giving details of the atrocities committed on the American women.

When the disturbances commenced the missionaries, Miss Chestnut and Mrs.
Machie, and exposed them to public view in the Chinese temple. Amy Machie, the doctor's 10-year-old child, was carried off and hung alive into the river. The rioters stripped Miss Chestnut and hung her in the river. While the two were struggling in the water three Chinamen separated them with tridents. Miss Chestnut's body and Amy Machie's head were pierced. Mrs. Machie appealed to the rioters but the mob attacked her brains out, stripped the body and hung it into the river.
The mob then captured Mr. and Mrs.
Peale, stripped them naked, exposed them for fifteen minutes, clubbed Mr. Peale to death in his wife's presence and subsequently killed Mrs. Peale in the same brutal manner.
